EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FORM 2021-2022

LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (LDC)

(Sub-Committee of the CWA of WA Board)

- Please Note: In order to be selected as a member of this Committee, a member must have served a minimum of 12 months' membership at branch level.
- The purpose of the LDC is to provide workshops which improve members' understanding of their role and responsibilities at all levels of the Association.
- Members can also be co-opted to the LDC at the invitation of the Coordinator, to present topics specific to their area of expertise.
- Train the Trainer support will be provided by the Association to assist members who are interested in joining this Committee.
- LDC members are encouraged to be available to occasionally travel to city or country areas to present workshops to members and branches. Costs are met through the State Projects Fund or organisers of the event.
- It is highly desirable that the member be computer literate and have access to email.
- There is a limit of six (6) members on this Committee.
- A Board member representative will provide oversight to this committee.
- The CWA of WA Board will determine the final selection of members for this committee from the expressions of interest received. Names of the successful members will be formally announced at State Conference in July.
- For a copy of the Committee Guidelines, please contact Marguerite Zeilinger at State Office on 9321 6041 or margueritez@cwaofwa.asn.au*
